

Event Terms & Conditions

As an attendee, you assume all risk and danger relating to your personal property, RV, and attendance at the Convergence, whether occurring prior to, during, or after the event. In the event of loss or theft, no claim will be made upon Escapees, its volunteers, employees, or agents. Volunteers may be directing and assisting you in your parking areas. It is, however, the driver of the RV or other vehicle who is ultimately responsible for avoiding obstacles or dangerous situations and, is solely responsible for any damage to one's property or the property of others.

As an attendee at this event, you are granting your permission to be filmed, videotaped, audio taped, or photographed, and granting the full use without compensation.

We ask you to follow these Rules of Conduct while attending events hosted by Escapees Inc. or under its banner.

- Ignorance of the rules does not excuse a violation of them. Violations may result in a temporary suspension or a permanent removal from the club in accordance with the member handbook.
- Do not use any discriminatory language, including but not limited to any language regarding ethnicity, nationality, race, gender, religion, sexual preference or personal beliefs.
- Do not use extremely foul language, including but not limited to language that is graphically sexual, grotesque, or violent.
- Do not harass, stalk, or purposely do things to make someone else feel uncomfortable or threatened.

These rules are neither final nor exhaustive - we reserve the right to suspend disruptive attendees even if their behavior doesn't fall under any of the above rules directly. Be nice, have fun and respect others and yourself.
